Mr. Woodward came highly recommended and I was very impressed with his knowledge, compassionate demeanor, and professionalism. He is well respected by fellow attorneys and judges. I hired Ric to handle a difficult child custody/child support case for my son, in which, there was never a marriage. The state of Florida has complicated laws when concerning child custody concerns when individuals are not married. Mr. Woodward not only put my son at ease, he was also able to do that for my grandchild's mother. Ric was able to bring this case to a conclusion that was in the best interest of all parties involved. If you are looking for an honest, fairly priced attorney, Ric Woodward is the man for you.

I recently hired Ric Woodward to represent me in a child custody and child support case. I was very pleased with how prompt he was with returning my calls and emails throughout the whole case. He stayed on top of every thing that needed to be done and fought very hard for what I deserved. He was very knowledgeable with all questions I had throughout the whole case. He is an attorney who has his clients best interest at heart and isn't just trying to rack your monthly bill up. I was more than happy with the outcome of the case and know 100% I couldn't have gotten the outcome without his help. I met with three other attorneys prior to him and he was the most honest one up front. He didn't ever give me false hope. He is very reasonably priced and good at what he does. Highly recommended for a great honest attorney because we all know honesty is hard to find in that field!

This office is awesome! I found this law office from a personal recommendation and do NOT regret coming to Mr. Woodward! He was very professional and handled all of my comments and concerns in a calm and experienced manner. He was able to resolve my case in a very efficient manner. Not to mention his office is clean, tidy, and organized for efficiency. If you're looking for a lawyer who cares about YOU, Ric is the BEST!

Mr. Woodward represented me in my divorce. He was always available when I had questions through phone or email. The retainer was reasonable and what I really liked is that he sent me a detailed itemized bill each month. This went through mediation and went very smoothly. He thoroughly reviewed all of my financial documents for completeness and accuracy. Hopefully I Never have to do this again but if I do, I would definitely Use Mr. Woodward.

Mr. Woodward was the perfect attorney to handle my divorce case. He was aware I had a limited budget and knew I wanted to get from point A to the final divorce in the least costly and most timely fashion. My situation also required experience in dealing with division of military pension and assets. He managed to negotiate the terms of the divorce with the least impact on my benefits. He helps me stay focused and eased my frustrations during some very contentious negotiations. In all, I don't think anyone else could have represented me any better. I highly recommend him for his personal concern for his client and his expert knowledge. I was highly satisfied with the results.

I was referred by a friend for my divorce & I'm very thankful for it! Ric handled everything very professionally & in a timely manner. He answered any question I had & gave me sound advice. He did not nickel & dime me & let me make the decisions & set the tone. There were a few other lawyers I consulted w/ & they wanted to destroy my ex. Not the route I wanted to take & they tried to scare me into being nasty. Come to find out...they just wanted $. I highly recommend his services!

I had a very long and contested divorce...Ric guided and represented me through some very tough litigation and hurdles. His advice and counsel are based in reality and knowledge of the system. You always have an idea of how you think things will go and sometimes reality "checks in" along the way...as your "soon to be ex" throws curveballs. If you're ready to get real and make it through a savage divorce, Ric is your guy. He was always responsive, prepared and knowledgeable. To all of you "first time-future divorcees" out there: divorce is a negotiation. I haven't met anybody yet who has gone through one that is 100% happy with the end results. Maybe you feel thought you should've gotten more of something or feel you left something on the table. My advice is to be flexible, don't sweat the small stuff and keep moving to the finish line. Everything's going to be alright with Ric!!

I had to hire an attorney after 29 years of marriage. I had never needed an attorney before this matter. I Was not sure what to expect. Ric was very straightforward upon meeting him for the first time. I felt comfortable with him. He walked me through the process, and explained everything thoroughly along the way. He was very attentive, and always responded to any, and all of my questions in a very timely manner. Often quicker than I would have expected. The end results could not have turned out better. (Thanks Ric) God forbid, I ever need a family lawyer again, but if I did, I would not hesitate to contact.... Ric Woodward attorney again!

I used a website and posted about my problem after calling a few different law firms directly and having them tell me they couldn't help. But when I got the call from Ric, it was on a Friday after his office had already been closed. But that didn't matter as he was helpful and help me set up an appointment, and even when I called back a bit later to change the times slightly, he was just as accommodating. He helped talk me through the problem, always open to calls, and making sure he kept me up to date with what he was doing for me and to help me with my case. I ended up not having to hire him fully after he looked through it and he was able to help me with a consultation alone, but I would fully recommend Ric for anyone looking for a Family Law lawyer.

Ric is everything one would want in an attorney for dissolution of marriage. He was patient, and listened to my concerns. At the initial consultation, he explained the entire process. As he walked me through the next couple months, I was familiar with the entire process, because he didn't miss a beat and had already explained everything. He was responsive and I never felt rushed either in the office or on the phone. He was responded to emails promptly. His fees were extremely reasonable and there wasn't anything that came up unexpectedly. He made sure everything was in my best interest. He was even able to resolve the situation quicker than originally planned. I would highly recommend him should you ever find yourself in a situation where you need a family lawyer. Sometimes life throws you a major league curve ball, which requires you retain Professional Legal Representation.

Such was my situation until a friend recommended, I speak with Eric William Woodward.

At our interview I found Eric to be personable, very knowledgeable about the law and the local legal system including all its players. Eric's rates were fair and well documented, so I hired him on the spot.

Immediately, my blood pressure seemed to fall as I knew I had a Fully Qualified Attorney looking out for me. One whom I could always get in touch with to answer all my questions, one whom has many years of locale legal experience.

Hopefully, I won't need Eric Woodward's Professional Services in the future, but if necessary, he will be my first call and I highly recommend he be yours if the need arises.

Attorney Ric Woodward recently represented me in a family case that involved divorce and child support. I was extremely pleased with his legal advice and professionalism throughout the entire process. He was able to prepare me for what to expect each step along the way from start to finish. Anytime I had a question or concern he quickly responded to me. I appreciated the fact that I could contact him directly and did not have to go through various legal staff members in order to get an answer. I retained Mr. Woodward extremely late in the game with an EXTREMELY difficult case. I had spoken to so many lawyers I was about to call it quits. Either I had been told I couldn't win, or they didn't want to take my case or they just didn't seem knowledgeable. From the first time I spoke with Ric, I knew he was the one. He prepared me, kept me cool and calm during the emotional court date and he himself stayed calm cool and collected. He had a fantastic report with the judge and handled my ex's atty very well while she tended to make a fool of herself in open court. He never led me to believe that we would win hands down, he let me know it would be difficult, he was upfront and honest with me at all times, however he had a positive vibe about him. His temperament and knowledge are really what won our case. I wish I had known of him from the beginning, I wouldn't have ended up where I did. He was THE ONLY atty that I've ever hired that has prepped me correctly and let me know exactly what to expect. He listened to me, asked questions and treated me with respect. He answered calls and emails promptly. I can't say enough about Mr. Woodward. If you're looking for representation that respects you and is respected by the courts, you've found your man.

To be honest, there were times I didn't want to proceed or that I was late turning in a document but Mr. Woodward was not only supportive but compassionate and nudged me along until it was finalized. Attorney Woodward and his office were so professional and understanding of my child custody/time sharing legal matter.

The first time I met with Attorney Woodward he listened to my points and he quickly had a plan for what steps to take next.

Attorney Woodward's representation cost was fair.

I am very direct and to the point and like things to be taken care of and be prepared for the same way.

Attorney Woodward was always prepared and I really appreciated that.

When we got close to the mediation date. Attorney Woodward and I were able to speak and go over all points that would be addressed and he explained the process of mediation.

Oh! Did I mention that I live out of state and most correspondence had to be done via cellular and email...

Attorney Woodward and his office worked so hard and well that me living out of state never was an issue?

Bottom line is that I and my legal matter were handled well. My time was never wasted. My input was always considered.

I am more than satisfied with Attorney Woodward's services and I WILL without a question give he and his office up as a good law office to any family or friends who ask.

From the first phone call to the Judge's signature, Ric was fantastic. I really appreciated his straightforward approach, from outlining the terms of our agreement for compensation, to his expertise in laying out his course of action and implementing every step with great efficiency. Ric provided frequent updates so I was never in the dark on progress. When I had questions, he responded immediately. Ric knows how to solve family legal matters and I owe him many thanks for clearing my name. Sincerely, Bruce

Eric represented me during my divorce case and I feel very lucky to have found him. From the first phone call he listened to the complex circumstances surrounding my case and immediately gave me the guidance and advice that I needed. He helped me focus on the most important aspects of the case, listened to what I had to say, and was very understanding of my situation

Ric has worked with me twice. I was very comfortable coming back to him when I needed him. What differentiates Ric from most of the attorneys is that his passion is to be honest and help his clients out the best way he can, while most attorneys' passions are for the money. Great job Ric. Hopefully I won't need your services again, but I would definitely go back to you in case something happens.

Mr. Woodward was my attorney for my dissolution of marriage that took place in Brevard County, Florida. Mr. Woodward provided me with all the information I needed for proceeding with a dissolution of marriage case. He worked in an extremely timely manner and was always easy to get in contact with whether it was through visitation, phone calls or emails. Mr. Woodward kept me informed throughout the whole process and answered any question that I had about the process. I found Mr. Woodward to be very trustworthy, knowledgeable, informative and recommend him to others going through the tough process of divorce.

Ric, represented our son in his custody case of his daughter. He was a down to earth person, answered all our sons' question, told him the worst and best that could happen in the case. He put up with the rants and got him calmed down. He answered our calls and email asap. In the end he did a great job in court, helping our son have his daughter 75% of the time. As the grandmother, Ric has made us one happy and grateful family. He comes very highly recommended from us.

Eric was a real pleasure to work with. He was professional, understanding of my situation, and serious about my case. He kept me thoroughly informed, was easy to contact for questions, and to return phone calls promptly.

Eric is very knowledgeable about State laws and statues and kept me informed about how potential new laws could affect the outcome of my case.

This is an attorney that, in my experience, working with him, does NOT play dirty in court. He does not get argumentative or aggressive but he is very assertive, and does everything possible to do the right thing for his client, and he will fight for his client, but he goes about it ethically. He kept his objections valid and to a minimum. The biggest thing I have noticed about Eric is that his office is clean and simple, in the sense of not cluttered with case files, or tons of law books. He respects his client's privacy and discloses nothing about his other cases. He is trustworthy, honest, and has high ethics and morals. The next time I need an attorney, Eric Woodward will be the first one I call.

Attorney Woodward is an excellent professional - competent, knowledgeable and personable, with an amazing grasp of the law. During our initial consultation, he truly listened to our situation and gave his recommendations after fully understanding our circumstances. He is not overbearing or full of himself, but rather is extremely competent and understated. His billing practices are above reproach with his rates being reasonable, billing statements fully documented and work specifically described. Most of our communication took place through email and his responses were prompt and succinct.

Mr. Woodward was very honest and upfront in his assessment of our case and did all that he could do to settle our issue without going to court. But in the end and despite his best efforts, that's where it ended up for several days. He did an amazing job letting us know what to expect and how to prepare for Court. He was extremely focused in the court room and didn't miss anything that went on while he was in there. After each session in Court, he took the time to explain what had happened, what to expect next and his overall feelings on the proceedings, being sure that we understood it all. Thanks to Mr. Woodward's efforts in the courtroom, the outcome of our case was better than we had expected.

We are very thankful that we found an ethical and trustworthy attorney and would absolutely recommend Attorney Woodward to anyone who finds themselves in need of counsel.

Attorney Ric, is a respectable and knowledgeable person in the case that he is working on. I never met him personally until the day of mediation. We had a conversation over the phone and emails constantly and he will respond to any questions you have in less than an hour if he is not in court.

I will recommend him to anyone going through a divorce and need a trustworthy attorney to represent him/her. The cost is reasonable and he will also work with your finances.

When I made the decision to file for divorce in February, I was confused and stressed, and felt very alone in the process. I was referred to Ric by a friend who praised his experience and insight, and she could not have been more correct. From our first conversation, Ric was honest and direct, yet helped me to feel in control of the process and to really understand what the road ahead looked like.

Through each stage of the process, Ric was a fantastic communicator, always responding promptly to my questions and concerns, and always reinforcing his advice with real world experience that related directly to what I was dealing with. When we began to fill out our financial affidavits, I was completely lost in the mountain of paperwork that was required, and Ric took the time to walk me through the forms, explaining what was needed from me with each section.

At mediation, I was concerned about the emotional component, and Ric kept the entire tone of our meeting calm and friendly, which expedited the process for us in a huge way. Ric's relationships with the other attorney and the mediation office were a huge boost to my confidence in the process - I always felt like I was being counseled by someone who was in control.

Ric is a great person who shows sincere care and concern for his clients - I felt supported through every step in the process. I'm thankful for Ric's advice and guidance, and I would strongly recommend him for anyone seeking solid legal counsel.

I'm normally not the type that would take the time to write a review for a company or someone, but I couldn't hesitate to do this after my experience with Ric Woodward. From the very beginning, of presenting my case to him and explaining what needed to be done, he immediately took action. Not only did he show concern and willingness, through the entire process, he always made sure that no matter what I requested, he did everything in the best interest of my son. I would extremely recommend Ric to any of my friends or family, or to anyone in need of a family law attorney. He will get the job done as quickly as possible and make sure everything is done in the best interest of everyone involved. I never had a problem getting a hold of him. I never disagreed with any of his actions on any matter. He has made a huge difference in my life and the relationship that I have with my son. I can't explain in words how grateful I am for having the opportunity of working with him.
